NEW TECHNOLOGY AGREEMENT FOR THE NON-INDUSTRIAL CIVIL SERVICE

Formal agreement was reached today with the Council of Civil Service Unions on the introduction of new technology in the non-industrial civil service. Only 2 union Executives opposed it and they will abide by the majority Council decision. The text of the agreement is as we discussed in E Committee. The National Whitley Council agreement will operate from 22 March.

I am sending copies of this minute to members of E Committee, the Secretaries of State for Scotland and Social Services, the Chief Whip (Commons), and to Sir Robert Armstrong.
