Dear Nigel,

You asked in your letter of 10 January 1986 to be kept in touch with developments on the South Atlantic Fund, and I last wrote to you on the subject on 8 December 1986. at Flap part 40

2. The Trustees of the Fund met on 2 December 1987 and decided to extend the life of the Fund by a further year, that is until July 1989. His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, Patron of the Fund, is being informed of this decision by Admiral Sir Richard Fitch, the Chairman of Trustees. at Flap part 41

3. A press release about this extension to the life of the Fund will be made once His Royal Highness has been informed. I should be grateful if this information could be treated in confidence until such time as my office lets you know otherwise.

Yours sincerely,

Clive Whitmore.
